

Description

Location (accessibility, multiplier effects on neighboring regions), population, size, reputation in the country)

Wakatobi is located in Southeast Sulawesi island and the name is composed of four of its main islands: Wangi-wangi, Kaledupa, Tomea and Binongko. The population is currently estimated about 103.423 people. Wakatobi main potential is marine-related, including tourism. It has one of the richest biodiversity in the world and its Marine National Park is internationally known for its marine conservation initiatives and people's participation. Over the past few years, Wakatobi government has been awarded by central government for many of its public services achievement eg. Innovative Government award, Public Services award, Tourism award, Green City award, Development award (Satya Lencana Pembangunan), etc.

Political/legal position in the respective state structure (name of mayor and term in office, next election period, decision-making structures)

The current Mayor is Mr. Hugua.

Human and financial resources (no of civil servants working in the public administration, overall annual financial budget, etc)

Number of civil servants working in the public administration currently: 3,141 people
Overall annual financial budget : IDR 389,280,861.758

Specific political, social, cultural and economic character/framework

The social and political condition is generally conducive.
The Product Regional Domestic Brutto (PDRB) is IDR 705,770,000.000, Income per capita is IDR 6,820,000.000, and
Economic growth rate is 13,76 %

This project is co-funded by the European Union.

A Project implemented by the consortium: Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung e.V., Thailand Environment Institute (TEI), Local Government Development Foundation Inc. (LOGODEF), United Cities and Local Governments for Asia and Pacific (UCLG-ASPAC), Association of Indonesian Regency Governments (APKASI), Association of Cities of Vietnam (ACVN), and National League of Communes/Sangkats of the Kingdom of Cambodia (NLC/S).